Required Supplemental Materials: Note-taking materials, videotape

Attendance Policy:
Students must notify the Registrar’s Office if they will be missing two weeks of classes. After two consecutive weeks of absences in all courses students are subject to being administratively withdrawn from school, regardless of notification.

Plagiarism:
Students are expected to meet academic standards of honesty in all aspects of their work at The Art Institute of Seattle. All work submitted, including papers and projects, written and oral examinations, and oral presentations and reports, must be free of plagiarism. Plagiarism is using the creations, ideas, or words of someone else without formally acknowledging the author or source through appropriate use of quotation marks, references, and citations.

Examples of plagiarism include using another person’s ideas as your own; copying words from a book or magazine without using quotes and citation; paraphrasing another person’s work without citation; or presenting designs, art or digital files created by someone else as your own. Any student who is uncertain whether his or her use of the work of another will constitute plagiarism should consult the course instructor before submitting the course work involved. Citation standards and guidelines are available from your instructors and The Art Institute Library.

The Art Institute of Seattle Policy on Plagiarism- It is the policy of The Art Institute of Seattle that students who copy or otherwise plagiarize the assignments, examinations, artwork, media or projects of other individuals are subject to disciplinary action, including failure of the course in which the plagiarized work was submitted or possible termination from The Art Institute of Seattle.

Disability Services:
The Art Institute of Seattle provides accommodations to qualified students with disabilities. The Disability Services office assists qualified students with disabilities in acquiring reasonable and appropriate accommodations and in supporting equal access to services, programs and activities at The Art Institute of Seattle. Students who seek reasonable accommodations should notify the Disabilities Services Coordinator, Angela Hedwall at 206-239-2299, of their specific limitations and, if known, their specific requested accommodations. Students will be asked to supply medical documentation of the need for accommodation. Classroom accommodations are not retroactive, but are effective only upon the student sharing approved accommodations with the instructor. Therefore, students are encouraged to request accommodations as early as feasible with the Disability Serviced Coordinator to allow time to gather necessary documentation. If you have a concern or complaint in this regard, please contact Angela Hedwall, Dean of Student Affairs in room 645, telephone number 206-239-2299. Complaints will be handled in accordance with the school's Internal Grievance Procedure for Complaints of Discrimination and Harassment.
